

Internship opening at the Cikananga Wildlife Rescue Center, Java, Indonesia

Full Clinic Audit

The Cikananga Wildlife Rescue Center takes care of on average 300 wild animals that are confiscated, rescued or evacuated from the wildlife trade or conflict situations. With 50 species of animals of different taxa a great variety of medicine and medical tools are needed maintain their health or respond in emergency situations after confiscations or rescues.

At the moment we are looking for a student who can do a detailed inventory at the clinic. We expect you to document, organize when necessary and categorize in order to give our veterinarians a tool to keep track of what is running out of stock or out of date. All activities will all be done with supervision of Cikananga staff who are Bahasa Indonesia and / or English and / or Dutch speaking.

Are you...

- Motivated, independent and precise
- Able to report and present the results at the end of your internship to the team at Cikananga
- Set for an insightful and memorable experience in Indonesia

We are open to either Vocational, Bachelor or Master students from veterinary, pharmaceutical or similar studies with a genuine feeling for animal welfare.

The rescue center completely depends on donations, therefore we are not able to reimburse travel or accommodation costs. Accommodation at the center is about 6 million Indonesian rupiah per month, this covers the stay in a dorm, two meals a day (lunch and dinner) and a laundry service.

Visit for more information www.cikanangawildlifecenter.com or www.wanicare.com or our Facebook pages. Are you interested and excited, apply by sending a motivation letter and CV to wanicare.volunteering@gmail.com Still got questions? Do not hesitate to contact us.

The Cikananga team

Ps.: Please know that there are many opportunities for assignments at Cikananga. Do you have a proposal? Please let us know.