

An exciting and challenging opportunity has become available at Cikananga Wildlife Center (CWC), as we are looking for an Enrichment Coordinator. We are looking for someone who will help refine and lead the enrichment program for our animals for a minimum period of 6 months.

Cikananga Wildlife Rescue Center takes care of on average 300 wild animals that are confiscated, and rescued. Providing enrichment to these animals is essential to prevent abnormal behavior since almost all animals are caught from the wild. In addition to enhancing captive welfare, it is also an important tool to trigger natural behaviors for animals that are being rehabilitated with the hope of reintroducing them back into the wild.

The coordinator of this program must be up for the challenge, you need to be organized, able to forward plan, able to work with managers, and keepers, lead a group of interns and volunteers and be resourceful and creative, working on a limited enrichment budget, utilizing existing and natural resources.

The role:

- Provide the animals of Cikananga with daily and structural enrichment.
- Lead a team of volunteers and interns
- Refine the current enrichment program
- Provide material to PR manager to keep donors and sponsors up to date.

What we expect from you:

- Excellent communication skills, plus an understanding and ability to speak and write English, as we are working with a team of Indonesian staff and interns/volunteers from all over the world.
- Exceptionally planning and organizational skills to deliver the program across site, working with keepers and leading volunteers.
- Knowledge of husbandry and enrichment in multiple taxa
- Passionate about wildlife conservation and welfare
- Able to train and motivate others
- Able to recognize needs for improvement, problems, and opportunities for optimizing efficiency and able to take appropriate steps to address these.
- Able to work in a flexible environment
- Professional, organized, creative, reliable, and motivated.
- Available for at least 6 months, however a longer period of time is preferred.

The rescue center completely depends on donations, therefore we are not able to reimburse travel costs.
